

Legal awareness camp on Anti Ragging and other laws organised

The Legal Aid Centre of the college in association with G. S. College of Commerce and DLSA, Nagpur organised legal awareness camp for the students of Commerce College on 10.02.2020. Principal Dr. Shrikant Komawar spoke about various dimensions of personality of the students including health and wellbeing. He pointed out the need for holistic development of the students and role of the law in development of good human beings and citizens from among the students. Mrs. Kalyani Kapse in charge Legal Aid Centre of the college made students aware of ill effect of the Ragging and laws which prohibits ragging in any form in the college campuses. Mr. Abhijit Deshmukh, Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Nagpur was also present on the occasion and explained the audience about working of NALSA as a state organization for providing free legal aid and to provide cheap and accessible justice through Lok Adalats and other legal services. Principal of G.S. College, Dr. N.Y.Khandait was also present and shared his views on this occasion. A skid by the students of the college, "We will rise" was also presented.

